FINE PROPERTY for SALE AT AUCTION.

I will sell at public outcry on the premises,

Friday, January 4th, 1907

at 10 a. m. sharp, without reserve or by-bid, the property known as

KINGS MILL,

on Dix River, in Garrard county, Kentucky, consisting of 44 acres of Land, Two fairly good Residences, Cistern Dairy, two Barns, Stable and two small Tenant Houses and Store Room, together with mill seat.

The dam is in good condition, fore-bay and turbine is all right. This property has been known for more than fifty years as a most desirable mill property, there being no mill closer than Burgin, Lancaster and Danville. The grain produced in the neighborhood is the finest milling product and can be bought low enough to deliver the manufactured product to market with advantage to the mill owner. The custom grinding amounts to between $1,500 and $2,600 per annum and it is a fine location for a country store.

TERMS: One-third cash, the remainder in two equal annual payments, bearing 6 per cent interest from date of sale, a lien retained for purchase money with precipitous clause. Possession given immediately. For further information address, F P Clay, Jr Paris Ky, Says: I can recommend Bourbon Poultry Cure to any one who has unhealthy fowls, as I had great success with it on my own flock. On several occasions I have cured chickens that were too sick to walk or stand up. I frequently put a little of the medicine in the drinking fountain as I think it keeps the fowls in a healthy condition.

Sold and guaranteed by Mount & Elkin.
